Part B

Example answer:

Peter had waited a long time to be in Mr. McGregor's garden and he intended to make the most of it. He scampered quickly towards the nearest vegetable patch and gobbled up lots of radishes, lettuces and French beans. He burped loudly and realised that he felt unwell so he searched for some parsley to see if this would help him feel better. As he hunted for the parsley, he noticed an attractive, small snail sliding on a wall. He climbed up onto the low wall to get a better look. At that moment, Mr. McGregor arrived in the garden so Peter stayed perfectly still. He eavesdropped on what Mr. McGregor was calling to his wife. Mr. McGregor glared around the garden, checking for thieves. Peter's heart was pounding. He stayed as still and quiet as he could.
