The Tale of the Knight and the Gnome

One day, there was a brave knight. He was on his way to fight a dragon. All of the people in the town were afraid of the dragon. He would gnarl, gnaw and gnash his teeth all night long. He kept the people in the town awake.

The knight got lost on his way to the fight. He found an odd house and did a loud knock on the window. A little gnome was inside. The knight knelt down on one knee to speak to the gnome.

The gnome knew that the dragon was in a cave. He said that he could help the knight with his campaign. They found the dragon and they tied a knot in the dragon's tail so that it was stuck to a rock. Now, the dragon could never gnarl, gnash and gnaw at the people in the town ever again!
