

Sharing your lollies with your friends.

twinkl.com

No hat, no
play rule.

twinkl.com

Going to bed
with no dinner.

twinkl.com

You only get
ice cream
after dinner if
you eat your
vegetables.

twinkl.com

Telling the truth, even if you are going to get in trouble.

twinkl.com

Taking turns
on the swing
during play.

twinkl.com

Everyone
having a job
to complete in the classroom.

twinkl.com

A friend saying
they don't want
to play with you
today because
you are wearing
different shoes to
everyone else.

twinkl.com

For a project
in class the
teacher picked
partners by
picking names
out of a hat.

twinkl.com

Only students
with blonde
hair get help
from the teacher
during Literacy
lessons.

twinkl.com

Awards are given at
assembly
for students
who work the
hardest.

twinkl.com

A teacher
spends equal
amounts of
time with all
their students.

twinkl.com

At the cross-country race, you must race against students who are 4 years older than you.

Everyone is going to get the same grade for the Maths test.

Donating your old toys to charity.

You must do all the chores at home and your siblings don't have to help.

Only half of the class needs to complete the weekly spelling test.

People need to complete a driving test to earn their driver's licence.

All students
need to wear
the correct
school uniform
every day.

twinkl.com

People need to work hard and
earn money to pay their bills.

twinkl.com

If you break
a rule, there
is often a consequence.

twinkl.com

All citizens need
to follow rules
and laws.

twinkl.com

If you break
the law, you
may have to appear in court.

twinkl.com

While sharing
out lollies, you
get 3 and all
your friends
get 5.

twinkl.com