Pancake Day

What Is Pancake Day?

Pancake Day is also known as Shrove Tuesday.

In Christianity, Shrove Tuesday is the feast day before the beginning of Lent on the following day (Ash Wednesday). Traditionally, Lent (the 40 days leading up to Easter), was a time of giving up certain foods. On Shrove Tuesday, people went to church to confess their sins and were called by a bell, which came to be known as the 'pancake bell'. People used up rich foods in their home such as eggs and one way of using them was to make pancakes.

Pancake Day Racing

Celebrations for Pancake Day include pancake races. In some areas, people gather together to join in races where they toss pancakes. Rules for the races vary. In some, the aim is to flip the pancake as many times as possible, whereas in others, such as in Olney, Buckinghamshire, the pancake has to be tossed at the beginning and at the end of a running race. Tradition suggests that in 1445, a woman heard the 'pancake bell' whilst making her pancakes. Still holding her frying pan, she ran to the church in her apron and from then on, the race continued. Today, competitors have to be women wearing an apron, skirt and a head scarf.
