Working at Greater Depth wi	thin the	e Expec	ted sta	andard:
Pupil(s) are confidently and independently able to apply their knowledge and skills:
to read a wider range of challenging texts that are above chronological age with fluency and understanding, decoding any unfamiliar words with speed and skill and recognising their meaning through contextual cues.
to maintain positive attitudes to reading and understanding of what they read by:
 confidently performing texts (including poems learned by heart) using a wide range of devices to engage the audience and for effect;
 reading for pleasure, discussing, comparing and evaluating in depth a wide range of genres including myths, legends and traditional stories, modern fiction, fiction from our literary heritage, and books from other cultures and traditions.
to understand what they read by:
 recognising themes in what they read (such as loss or heroism);
 comparing characters, settings and themes within a text and across more than one text;
 considering different accounts of the same event and discussing viewpoints (both of authors and of fictional characters);
 analysing the use of language, including figurative language and how it is used for effect;

 discussing how characters change and develop through texts by drawing inferences based on indirect clues; drawing out key information and summarising the main ideas in a text.
to distinguish independently between statements of fact and opinion, providing reasoned justifications for their views.
